

GDPR Compliance

How we can help

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) comes into force in the UK on 25 May 2018. Shepherd and Wedderburn are at various stages of completing GDPR compliance projects and providing strategic advice to a number of domestic and international clients using our GDPR toolkit. A failure to comply with GDPR could lead to fines of up to €20 million or 4% of global annual turnover (whichever is higher).

Our experience

Strategic Advice on General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) Compliance:

- Providing strategic high-level advice to a retail bank on the development of a data discovery and compliance programme for the GDPR including commercial advice for the retail bank to achieve a defensible position under GDPR in a business enabling way, focussing on the personal data and processing activities which are business critical.
- Providing in-house training to a major asset manager with £129bn of funds under management on the implications for their employee processes arising from GDPR.
- Advising a UK national charity on the negotiation and implementation of GDPR compliant data protection clauses;
- Scoping and implementing a GDPR compliance project with a global drinks manufacturer;
- Drafting GDPR compliant data protection terms and conditions for a UK/US based gaming analytics company;
- Providing strategic advice to a global online social media company on the development of a GDPR compliance programme;
- Advising a range of pension trustees on a range of GDPR issues, particularly surrounding the trustees' basis of processing;
- Advising US based pharmaceutical and life science company on the terms of a GDPR data privacy agreement with a clinical research partner.
