Scotland's premier property conference

Now in its 17th year, Property 2016 takes place in Edinburgh on Thursday 10 November, and brings together industry leaders who share their unique perspectives on this year's theme 'Place-making – building the best for the future'.

Low to negative interest rates, the prospect of leaving Europe, a chronic housing shortage and the emergence of new technologies all add up to an interesting cocktail of challenges for today's place makers. Property 2016 is therefore timely in that the expert panel of speakers will steer their audience towards new ways of thinking about these very real issues.

Our stellar speaker line-up includes:
