

HELPING BUSINESSES PREPARE FOR BREXIT

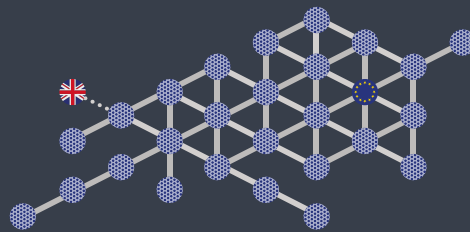

How can we benefit your business?

We provide the full spectrum of immigration services, which we can tailor to meet the specific needs of your business or organisation.

Jacqueline Moore, our Head of Immigration and a Law Society of Scotland-accredited immigration law specialist, has 18 years' experience supporting private and public sector clients on matters ranging from right to work, sponsor licenses, family and personal visas and British citizenship applications.

We offer:

- information group seminars for staff and HR managers;
- Brexit briefings to business owners and HR managers;
- assistance with co-ordinating a Brexit strategy;
- assistance with conducting a full workforce audit;
- help with obtaining a Sponsor Licence;
- Sponsor Licence maintenance service;
- tailored sectoral briefings on immigration reform; and
- one-to-one consultations for individual employees, which allow them to discuss their immigration and status concerns in private.
